Peter Lapan of Brattleboro, who had trouble with a neighbor, went to his home recently and said, "let's drop it and be friends," and extended his left hand to shake. His neighbor accepted the hand only to be hit over the head with a brick that Lapan had in his right hand. The latter was fined $100 and costs in court and put under bonds to keep the peace.

LOCAL NEWS

MORRISVILLE

Mrs. C. H. Crane visited her sister, Mrs. H. A. Noyes, at Hyde Park Thursday.

Mrs. C. D. Howe of Poultney visited friends in town for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Magoon announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Alice, to Dewey Bronson on Thanksgiving Day at North Bennington. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hamlin, formerly of Hyde Park. The young people will begin housekeeping after the holidays in their new home at South Shaftsbury, where Mr. Bronson is an automobile dealer. Mrs. Bronson is a graduate of Stowe high school and of Castleton normal school.

Louise M. Slocum Class Entertained

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 5, Mrs. W. M. Sargent and Mrs. C. M. Chapin entertained the members of the Louise M. Slocum Class of the Universalist Church at the Sargent home on Park street. In spite of the inclement weather, 25 were present and several important business items were transacted as well as an enjoyable and social evening spent.

Not only was this the regular meeting of the society, but also the annual meeting. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Marguerite Chapin; vice-president, Mrs. Edna Billings; secretary, Mrs. Angie Eaton; treasurer, Mrs. Kate Peck; press correspondent, Miss Louise Slocum. Plans for bringing Christmas cheer to some of our rural children were made and the following committee appointed to have the affair in charge: Mrs. Anna Fortier, Mrs. Pauline Wilkins, Miss Nellie Aiken. Any member of the class who has articles to donate please notify a member of the committee. Following the business meeting delicious refreshments were served and the party finally dispersed at a late hour to meet again early in January. Notice will be given later.

HARMONY POMONA GRANGE

Harmony Pomona Grange met with Lamaille Grange on Wednesday of last week. The meeting was opened by the worthy master, H. Stiles of Johnson, the usual amount of business was transacted and then followed the working of the degree of Pomona, which was exceptionally well done, the officers having their parts well committed. Twelve ladies dressed in white graced our court, which added much to the impressiveness of the work.

Special mention should be made of the dinner which the committee had in charge, feeding nearly 70 people. Everything was conducted in an excellent manner and everyone seemed satisfied, also adding a small sum of money to our treasury.

The afternoon was given over to the election of officers to serve for two years, as follows: Master, A. V. Hollis of Morrisville; overseer, Roy LaFountain of Morrisville; lecturer, Rev. Mr. Hayward of Stowe; steward, George Story of Morrisville; assistant stewards, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarthy of Stowe; chaplain, Mrs. W. H. Leslie of Johnson; treasurer, Will Davis of North Hyde Park; secretary, Mrs. A. C. Perry of Stowe; gatekeeper, H. E. Pike of Waterbury Center; Ceres, Mrs. A. V. Hollis of Morrisville; Pomona, Mrs. Roy LaFountain of Morrisville; Flora, Mrs. Lambert of Johnson.

These officers were duly installed by the district deputy now being ready to commence this year's work. An invitation from Johnson Grange was given to meet with them in February and the invitation was accepted.
